Foreword

As Editor of the 1975 ARGONAUT, I along with the Annual Staff, hope that you will be proud of the book we have put together. A lot of hard work went into putting this Annual together and we hope that some of these pictures will always hold special meanings for you. As you look back over this book in the future you will realize that the years you spent at WHS were some of the most important times in your life. Keeping this in mind, I present to you the 1974-75 ARGONAUT.

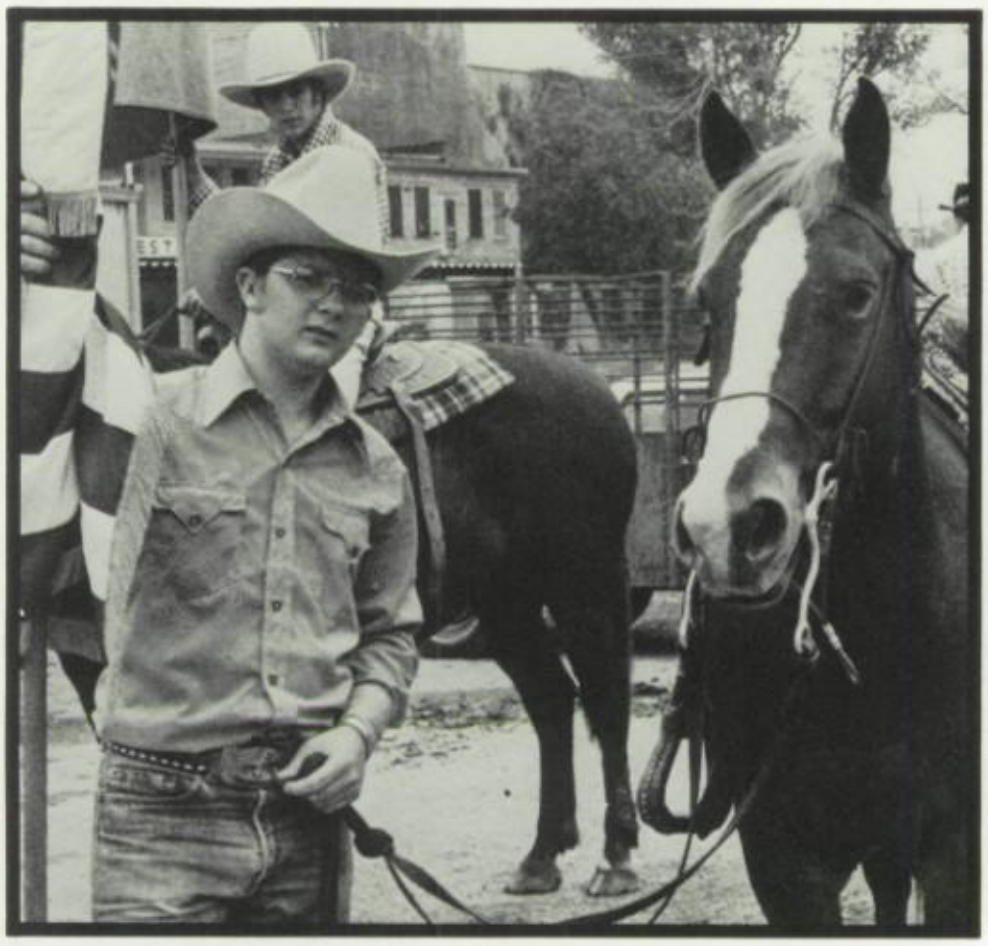
Just for today

I'd like to see

The world standing

Hand in hand



Just

for today . . .

Happiness adds

And multiplies

As we divide it

With others.

Just for today . . .

My part is to improve

The present movement.

Just for today . . .
I will look with fresh eyes
and discover the wonder
I will know that as I give to the world so the world will give to me.

Just for today . . .

I will be unafraid of life

MR. THOMAS B. PICKETT, JR.
Superintendent

As Superintendent, Mr. Pickett serves as the chief executive officer of the Board of Trustees, and under its direction and subject to its orders, he has general control and supervision of the entire school system and all school employees. He administers the school system in conformity with the policies of the Board, selects, recommends, and assigns all school employees and directs all financial accounting.

MR. THOMAS GLADDEN
Business Assistant

Mr. Gladden is in charge of all financial records of the district. He is responsible for all expenditures for budgeted items. He must approve expenditures for maintenance, operation, and transportation supplies and equipment along with instructional materials and equipment. It is his responsibility to approve, code, and make a monthly report to the Board of Trustees of all bills paid. He also countersigns all checks for the above bills along with all payroll checks.

Administration

MR. THOMAS E. DANNELLY
Curriculum Director

Under the newly established position of Curriculum Director, Mr. Dannelly is responsible for administering the total organization of the instructional program, including curriculum design, grouping of students, special programs, and projects. He also, along with the Superintendent and Principals, secures additions and replacements of school personnel and acts as textbook custodian by taking active part in the selection of textbooks.

MR. RICHARD BOEHM
Tax Assessor-Collector

Mr. Richard Boehm serves as Tax Assessor-Collector for the district. It is his responsibility to prepare tax-budget information, collect delinquent taxes, and perform more than forty-five other greatly needed tasks in order for the school system to have sufficient funds to operate. Mr. Boehm also prescribes the policies by which the local tax office is operated. He must supply information to both citizens and the Board of Trustees as well about taxes.

Board of Education

The school board of the Wharton Independent School District is charged with the responsibility of the complete education program of the district. During the past school year this board has directed the completion of a new administration building, a new library, a new field house, parking facilities, and air conditioning. Also during this year there have been constructive changes and additions to the curriculum under the supervision of the new director of curriculum.

You've Got a Friend

"What subjects should I take next year?" . . . May I take it in summer school?" . . . "Could you send my transcript to . . ." . . . "How do I fill in this application?"

These were questions heard and patiently answered every day by the competent counselors of Wharton High. Although many students complete high school without really knowing the numerous tasks performed by this staff, it is only through the dedication of these counselors to their job that enables students to plan a curriculum that will be beneficial to them in later life.

COUNSELORS
Mrs. Kathy Knox
Mr. Robert Mathews

Principal

MR. JACK M. THORTON

As the new Principal of Wharton Senior High School, Mr. Thorton brought many new ideas for the improvement of the school. During the course of a regular school day, Mr. Thorton can be seen doing an assortment of things anywhere from listening to complaints of teachers to attending pep rallies and numerous other school functions. He has many responsibilities to fulfill each day, such as allocating specific duties to each of the maintenance personnel, securing substitutes for absent teachers, attending teachers' meetings, having regular fire drills, keeping a calendar of school activities, and many other important tasks. Though his schedule is a busy one, he somehow seems to be able to find time to listen to the ideas and complaints of both students and teachers alike. Mr. Thorton has a great personal concern for making Wharton High School the best possible surroundings for a good education by improving the methods of education as well as the atmosphere in which the students are being taught. Mr. Thorton has been, and will continue to be, a great asset to the students and faculty of Wharton High School.

Asst. Principal

MR. JAMES DURLEY

Mr. Durley, formerly a math teacher at Wharton High, served his first year as Assistant Principal during the 1974-75 school year. He, like Mr. Thorton, has many duties to perform each day. At times he can be seen counseling a student in his office, checking the absentee list, discussing important matters with teachers and counselors, or even at times just rapping with students between classes.

Asst. Principal

MR. KENNETH E. HEWETT

The 1974-75 school year is also the first year for Mr. Ken Hewett to serve as Assistant Principal. He previously was the Asst. Principal at the Junior High. He also tries hard to help communicate with the students, and make announcements at lunch.

Together both Mr. Durley and Mr. Hewett try to help make the school run smoothly.

Teaching can be a job, or an occupation which can take as much or as little time as a teacher is willing to give. During the past school year many teachers were observed giving their time to students before and after school and on week-ends. These hard working faculty members and interested students got together to accomplish an assortment of tasks: to learn skills that would stay with them all their lives, to teach others the fundamentals of thinking, and to make friends and memories of each other. Wharton teachers taught more than their courses; they taught students to know what it is to really care about others.

Office Secretaries

1974-75 brought an entirely new group of secretaries to Wharton High. Keeping all of the school's paper work in order is an enormous job in itself, yet the people in the office do much more. If a person needs help in any way, there is always someone on this necessary staff with a warm smile and a helping hand.

OFFICE STAFF

MR. ROBERT RILEY

Coordinator

CAFETERIA STAFF
L. to R.: Magnolia Heard, Marie Bryant, Queen Esther Tisdale, Patsy Legler (Manager), and Mary Del Bosque.

Auxiliary Staff

Clangy food trays, squeaky tennis shoes, and the clatter of trash cans are some of the sounds commonly associated with Wharton's fine auxiliary staff. They put up with complaints ranging from crummy air conditioning and heating, to bubble gummy patio benches, along with providing the many needed services which go unnoticed.

Friday, April 26, the Junior class presented the rumored last prom for WHS; the theme being "The Wizard of Oz." Members of the Junior class worked long and hard to make the prom a success. Most people who did go had a very enjoyable evening.

Jrs. Create Oz

The Junior class worked hard the night of April 25 to transform the drab cafeteria to the Land of Oz - complete with the Tin Man, Scarecrow, Cowardly Lion, Wicked Witch of the West, and Yellow brick road. Everyone agreed the juniors had done a marvelous job decorating the Prom.

During the band's first break, members of the sophomore class put on a skit for entertainment. Their over-all theme was the "Wizard of Oz" and they dressed up as Oz characters. The skit was very amusingly comprised to include a very large portion of the seniors present at the prom. The skit was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Class Song – Sunshine on My Shoulders

Sunshine on my shoulders makes me happy
Sunshine in my eyes can make me cry
Sunshine on the waters looks so lovely Sunshine almost always makes me high

If I had a day that I could give you
I'd give you a day just like today
If I had a song that I could sing for you
I'd sing a song to make you feel this way

Graduation Exercises Held in the Auditorium

On Monday night, May 26, 1975, seniors sat in their assigned seats for the last time. The last minutes as WHS Seniors were spent reflecting upon the years spent in Wharton High School. The good times, along with the bad, were all remembered and the graduating seniors realized that without one, the other couldn't have been possible. The future was thought of as a challenge to some while others "to take it easy." The seniors are now ready to take on the challenges life has in store for them and agree that the students, the faculty, and most of all the friends of WHS have in some way or another prepared them for these new challenges. To all of our 1974-1975 Seniors - we wish the BEST of LUCK!

Stop . . .

The time has come for a final accounting:
to record the pep rallies, the assemblies
and the football games that mark
the momentum of our year,
to wash the dabs of poster paint from our shoes
and to contemplate the chemistry of water, and paint, and posters, and people, and our year at Wharton High.

Look . . .

Closer now —
at the faces and friends that populate Wharton;
at the rulers and notebooks, the pencils and pictures, the labs and tests that decorate our days, occupy our hands, and expand our minds.

Listen . . .

To the ideas that clamor for attention
amid the questions begging for answers
and the lectures longing to be heard.
Above it all, listen for the laughter —
delicious, bubbling laughter!

Joy sings in beauty
that surrounds us . . .
Joy smiles through loved ones
all around us . . .
Joy speaks in gentle words
that guide us . . .
Joy smiles in feelings
deep inside us.

From all of us to you
